Fifty-fourth session
Election of judges of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

Letter dated 7 March 2000 from the Secretary-General to the President of the General Assembly

I have the honour to refer to your letter of 6 March 2000 concurring with my proposal to appoint Mr. Liu Daqun as a judge of the International Tribunal from the Former Yugoslavia (see annex I). I have received a corresponding letter from the President of the Security Council. Accordingly, I have appointed Mr. Liu as a judge of the International Tribunal, effective 1 April 2000, for the remainder of the term of office of Judge Wang, which term will expire on 16 November 2001.

Annex I

Letter dated 6 March 2000 from the President of the General Assembly to the Secretary-General

I have the honour to refer to your letter of 23 February 2000 concerning the candidature of Mr. Lin Daqun for the remainder of the term of office of Mr. Wang Tieya, member of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991, whose resignation will be effective 31 March 2000 (see annex II).

In accordance with article 13, paragraph 3, of the statute of the International Tribunal, I have reviewed the qualifications of Mr. Liu and am pleased to inform you that I concur with the proposed appointment.

(Signed) Theo-Ben Gurirab

Annex II

Letter dated 23 February 2000 from the Secretary-General to the President of the General Assembly

I have the honour to refer to article 13, paragraph 3, of the statute of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991, which reads as follows:

> "In the event of a vacancy in the Chambers, after consultation with the Presidents of the Security Council and of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications of paragraph 1 above, for the remainder of the term of office concerned."

In this connection, I should like to inform you that Judge Wang Tieya, a national of China, has, for reasons of health, resigned as a judge of the International Tribunal, effective 31 March 2000.

The Government of the People's Republic of China has presented the candidacy of Mr. Liu Daqun to replace Judge Wang. Please find attached his curriculum vitae (see appendix).

It is my view that Mr. Liu meets the qualifications which are prescribed in article 13, paragraph 1, of the statute of the International Tribunal. I also consider that Mr. Liu's appointment would be well calculated to ensure adequate representation on the Tribunal of the principal legal systems of the world, as contemplated in article 13, paragraph 2 (c), of the statute of the Tribunal.

I should therefore like to proceed to consultation with you on the appointment of Mr. Liu, in accordance with article 13, paragraph 3, of the statute of the International Tribunal. I look forward to receiving your views on the matter.

(Signed) Kofi A. Annan
